

22-26 East Pallant Street North Adelaide, SA

3

3

2

Creative collaboration of old and new.

Enter another world, a stylish statement, practical in the extreme for relaxed no fuss living.

The history is of particular note as the early cottage was built by John Cocker who not only is reputed to have built The Kentish but also to have laid out the Adelaide Oval and started SACA.

Features:

- Security system
- 4 x split systems
- Heated floor & towel rails in 2 bathrooms
- Concrete floors
- Sydney Bluegum parquetry
- Honed Carrara marble kitchen bench
- Automatic irrigation
- Remote controlled garage doors
- Interesting mini orb detail

Price: SOLD - FOX

Candy Bennett

candy@foxrealestate.com.au
0418 816 639

