Classic Victorian terrace full of charm and character c.1880

This home is in excellent condition providing wonderful city living with a great fusion of old world charm and a modernised 2017 lifestyle.

The historic "Albert Terrace" was designed by prominent architect of its era Daniel Garlick. The largest bluestone terraces erected in Adelaide in 1880's, using bluestone from the Mitcham quarry. Ownership is on full Torrens Title. Offering you a great living opportunity, in an excellent location and so close to many cosmopolitan destinations.

A large slate verandah welcomes you to this beautiful character residence, with many open fireplaces, striking lofty ornate ceilings with amazing feature plaster work, classic Baltic pine floorboards, feature timberwork throughout and a beautiful wrought iron balustrade. The retained Victorian architecture is stunning.
