Charisma and charm that's constantly attractive.

If you have a soft spot for character homes this one is sure to sweep you off your feet. Nestled in a highly popular tree lined street, this stunning circa 1900 home creates an irresistible first impression matched by interior spaces that have been renovated and extended for today's family living.

Surrounded by manicured gardens, beautiful leadlight adorns the entry welcoming you to a long arched hallway, flowing through to an inviting formal dining featuring ornate dome ceiling and cellar. Step down to the spacious and light filled family living adjacent kitchen meals that is well appointed with abundant storage cupboard options and where French doors open out onto the sunny North facing outdoor entertaining patio. This is the perfect backdrop for entertaining family and friends and for watching the kids at play in the secure rear garden.
