Meticulously renovated and extended in 2019, the historic charm of Drapers Hall meets modern sophistication while resetting luxury living. The meeting of a grand early 1900 stone residence with a story to tell and a brilliant state-of-the-art transformation. The residence has been superbly designed and transformed by award winning Proske Architects and fully executed by renowned Traegermunt Builders.

The original stately residence features elegant sitting room and dining room or study of grand proportions with
